If the weighted system results in a sixth-place tie, the MCMA Executive Team will vote on the final position Nominee.

SECOND BALLOT

Voting opens September 9, 2024

From the list of Nominees supplied, each eligible MCMA Industry member may vote for ONE AND ONLY ONE Nominee in each category. In order to vote in the Second Ballot, you must be a MCMA Industry member in good standing before the close of the Second Ballot on September 27, 2024.

For each category, the Nominee receiving the highest number of votes within that category will be announced as the winner at the Awards Presentation on Sunday, November 10, 2024. In the event of a tie, the MCMA Executive Team will vote to determine the Second Ballot winner.

Additional Balloting Information

There must be three (3) Contenders after the First Ballot in any particular category in order for that category to remain in that current year. Categories with three (3) or more Contenders after the First Ballot will move directly to the Second Ballot. If there are less than three (3) Contenders, eligibility requirements may be reviewed and altered by the MCMA Awards and Balloting Committee to allow for more Contenders or the category may be placed on hiatus for the current year only. Only those Contenders within a category placed on hiatus may be eligible for the year immediately following the hiatus.

The MCMA will open each stage of the balloting process with an announcement to members by email. By sending this announcement to the last email address provided to the Association by the member, the Association then considers the member deemed to have received their login information within the specified period of time after the mailing date. Voting rules are subject to change at the discretion of the MCMA Board of Directors by a majority vote at a scheduled MCMA board meeting or special meeting. It is the responsibility of the Contenders to notify the MCMA, in writing, of changes to ballot information prior to September 5, 2024.

Information as it appears on the Second Ballot is final. MCMA Award Nominees have the right, should they so desire, to have their name eliminated from any particular category. Nominees will be notified as to their nomination prior to the Nominee Announcement and the commencement of the Second Ballot (September 9, 2024). Please contact the MCMA Awards and Balloting Committee Chair by email at manitobacma@gmail.com prior to the commencement of the Second Ballot to remove your name, if so desired.
